

WELCOME TO BETH EL The Heights Synagogue

What kind of community are we?

We have a traditional service, with a full Torah reading,
And we're egalitarian.

We are a multigenerational congregation,
And it's reflected in our services.

We have healthy and delicious food for our Shabbat Kiddushes,
And our conversations are even better.

Some of us walk, some of us bike, and some drive to services,
But we all come to daven.

We have Bar and Bat Mitzvahs,
And to us, that's the real celebration.

We don't have a daily minyan,
But the minyan always appears when a member is in need.

Our kids are enrolled in public, private and religious day schools. Some are home schooled.
But most importantly, we instill a love of learning.

Some of us are well off; others are not.
But you can never tell who's who.

We have adult education classes, participatory Torah discussions, book clubs and more.
Our community believes in lifelong learning.

We live on the east side and west side, in the Heights and in other suburbs,
And we celebrate together as often as we can.

We are successful because of our members.
We work together as and for the collective whole.

We have little kids and older kids,
And each finds a niche.

We have a bicycle rack
That gets used on a regular basis.

We are located in a residential community with tree-lined streets,
And for many of us, our congregation is another type of home.

Some are well versed in Hebrew, in Jewish practice, in Torah, while others are not.
Some are Jews by birth; others are not.
But we all have a love of Judaism and welcome all to worship with us.

We're a small congregation,
But in many ways, that is our strength.
